Does Child Qualify as a Dual Resident? Yes No

* Michigan Law provides that, without regard to whether a parent or legal guardian has custody of the child, if a child's parents, or child's legal guardian, reside in different districts and if the child meets the applicable age requirements, the child may enroll in a district, in which either the child's parent/s or legal guardian resides. When a child described in this law enrolls in a district under this law, that district is the child's district of residence.
