Bio Box:

One of the middle school Bobcats, Jacob (Chad) Saylor, is a baseball player for the Bedford Prime. People call him "Chad" because he was at a football game and a random kid asked him what his name was and he said Chad. Jacob said, "I joined my most recent team because they needed me." Jacob has big dreams and said, "I want to go pro someday." Jacob also said, "I am going to go pro by practicing and being the best." Jacob's favorite part of baseball is fielding, "I like getting people out because it helps my team." Jacob has practice every day from 5:30 to 7 pm at Stoneco. He currently plays any position he is given. Jacob has been playing since he was in first grade. "My plan is to go to whichever college gives me an offer to play as the stepping stone to professional ball. My ultimate team to play for in the pros would be the Yankees. I like that team and I would like to live in New York where there is so much to do every day."

Maze of the Month:

Present Adventures:

The Middle School Student Council hosted a Halloween kickoff party. At the party students put on their costumes for the costume contest in which the top three were selected. They were selected by who had the loudest claps when they were announced. Caden and Glory Speweik took first place in the contest with their costume which was a milk and cookie costume, in the costume glory was the milk and Caden was the cookie, Caden said his favorite part about his costume was doing with his sister. Number two went to Noah and Logan Sanjur with their Among Us Characters. Number 3 went to Allen Raker with his costume of a Christmas present. The Party also had some more fun activities like kickball, dancing, spike ball and, football. There was also pizza and pop. One of the students, Kasey Workman said his favorite part of the party was the food he also said “The food, music, and games made the party good.” He also said his favorite costumes were the blowup Among us characters which were worn by logan and noah sanjur

Alternate Activities:

In Mrs. Kwaz’s 7th grade Spanish class the students are working on Dia de los Muertos. They worked on their calaveras skulls and they are up on the board in the classroom for the whole class to see. From computer to paper, they also worked on their Dia de los Muertos Webquest. The 7th grade Spanish class went to the elementary to paint half of their little buddies faces. Ella Dietz said, “It was adorable to see all the little buddies faces painted.”

Teacher Talk:

Mr. Hubbard said, “Work hard. Have fun.”

Mrs. DeSilvis 8th grade classes had a salsa contest on November 9th the half day. For this contest students brought homemade salsa, Pico de Gallo, or guacamole. In one of the 8th grade classes Brody Masters won class pick and Ava Butz won teacher pick. In the other class Jacob Krieger won class pick. Allen Raker and Mason Luzier won teacher pick. Mrs. DeSilvis said, “I do the salsa contest for a bunch of different reasons. I do the contest because salsa is a big part of culture, also because it is a fun thing to do for the students to do with their parents. I do the contest to broaden the horizons of the students.”
